Polarity coverage and exported pick modes require separate denominators